III. NOTICES

OTHER MOTIONS

1. Mr. Nixon—Resolution—Resolved that a Select Committee of the House be established immediately to enquire into and report upon the reform of our electoral processes, this enquiry to result in recommendations for legislation concerning:

electoral expenses of parties and candidates;

public or governmental participation in election costs;

declaration of total expenditures and limitations thereon;

establishing a system of permanent registration of voters;

modernization of electoral machinery;

methods of marking ballots;

voting age.

2. Mr. Sopha—Resolution—In the opinion of this House the assignment of wages should be prohibited by law.

3. Mr. Trotter—Resolution—Be it resolved that this House is in favour of a comprehensive Government-sponsored health insurance program covering all of the people of Ontario. Such a plan should include the following principles among others:

(a) Doctors shall be paid on a fee for service basis and be free to practise within or without the Plan.

(b) The patient shall have the right to be treated by the doctor of his choice.

(c) No means test.

(d) Mental illness shall be treated on the same basis as all other illness.

4. Mr. Gaunt—Resolution—That coverage under the Ontario Hospital Services Commission be extended to all aged and infirm persons who are no longer eligible to remain in hospitals, and in that regard the Government ought to foster the establishment of Nursing Homes with prescribed standards set down by Provincial Regulations.

5. Mr. Farquhar—Resolution—In the opinion of this House the problem of the increasing pollution of our water, the erosion of our land and the introduction of noxious fumes into the air, has become a matter of grave and anxious concern to the people of this Province. Therefore, be it resolved that a Committee of this House be appointed to study and report upon all aspects of this important problem.

6. Mr. Racine—Resolution—In the opinion of this House the Province of Ontario should participate in a National Pension Plan, sponsored by the Federal Government. It is further the opinion of this House that such participation would serve the best interests of the people of Ontario and would be a further contribution to the development of national unity.
7. Mr. Young—Resolution—That legislation be enacted to provide a system of compensation without fault for injuries, death, and property damage caused by automobile accidents, as unanimously recommended by the Select Committee on Automobile Insurance, and that such a system be administered by a public agency.
8. Mr. Thompson—Resolution—That a Select Committee of eight Members of this House be appointed to prepare and report with all convenient dispatch a review with recommendations for the improvement of the rules of procedure of the House with special emphasis on a re-organization of the committee system and such other matters as the procedure for Questions of the Day.
9. Mr. Paterson—Resolution—That in the opinion of this House the Government of Ontario should provide long-term guaranteed loans to recognized organizations to develop legitimate tourist attractions.

QUESTIONS

1. Mr. Singer—Enquiry of the Ministry—Will the Attorney General advise the average case load handled by each magistrate in The Municipality of Metropolitan Toronto during the year 1964, and by each magistrate elsewhere in Ontario.
2. Mr. Singer—Enquiry of the Ministry—(a) Will the Attorney General advise if there is a backlog of cases to be tried in Metropolitan Toronto. If so, how many such cases are awaiting trial. (b) Will the Attorney General advise if in the event an adjournment of a case pending in Magistrate's Court in Metropolitan Toronto becomes necessary, what is the average length of time that it takes to have the case heard again.
3. Mr. Singer—Enquiry of the Ministry—Will the Attorney General advise if there have been any requests from The Municipality of Metropolitan Toronto, or from a chief magistrate of the Province of Ontario, or from the Inspector of Legal Offices, for the provision of more courts for magistrates in Metropolitan Toronto, or improved facilities.
  - (a) If so, within the last three years, who made such requests, and when.
  - (b) In what form were these requests set forward.
4. Mr. Singer—Enquiry of the Ministry—Will the Attorney General advise if the Inspector of Legal Offices has, within the last three years, advised that in his opinion magistrates' facilities in The Municipality of Metropolitan Toronto are not adequate. If so, what action has been taken in regard to such advice.
5. Mr. Singer—Enquiry of the Ministry—Will the Attorney General advise if The Municipality of Metropolitan Toronto is in breach of Section 19 (4) of The Magistrates Act, Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1960, Chapter 226.
